

Antonette Richards BSc, MSc, PMP

Antonette Richards has been working as a Policy Specialist with the Government of Jamaica for almost 15 years. She is currently the Community Development Specialist at the Planning Institute of Jamaica where she provides policy and technical advice on issues related to security, justice, community development and governance. Antonette is a Commissioner on the National Commission for Violence Prevention. She also sits on a number of boards and committees including the National Task Force against Trafficking in Persons, the Jamaica Social Investment Fund Projects Committee, the Dispute Resolution Foundation Board, the Sustainable Development Goals Core Group and the National Oversight Committee for the Child Diversion Programme.

Miss Richards has worked in Trinidad and Tobago as a Community Planner with the Port of Spain City Corporation and as a Community Development Worker with the East Port of Spain Development Company. She has also worked as Youth Empowerment Officer at the National Centre for Youth Development and a Project Officer at the Kingston Restoration Company Ltd. Antonette is a trained Urban Planner at both the Bachelor's and Master's degree levels. She is also a Project Management Professional and has received training in result-based management and procurement.