

AVRIL RANGER, MBA, B.Sc. (Hons)
SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION

Avril Ranger, has spent over nineteen (19) years using her personal and career experiences in the social sector to help people and communities find solutions to their complex community development issues with aim to improve lives and bring about positive change.

At present, Avril manages the Local Economic Development Support Programme (LEDSP) at the Social Development Commission; a programme designed to create a platform from which grassroots businesses (a.k.a) local economic initiatives can be developed. The LEDSP aims to bolster viable economic enterprises and shape a culture of productivity that will result in growth in the local economy primarily at the community level.

Avril received her education at the University of the West Indies, Mona with a Master's in Business Administration with concentration in International Business Management and Bachelor's in International Relations and Management.

She is a devout Kiwanian and is the current Divisional Secretary for Division 23 East Surrey South Jamaica.

Avril is an avid reader who enjoys gardening, doing research, walking, making visits to museums and nature parks.

As a true servant leader one of her mottos is: "If it is to be, it is up to me"
