

Nicklon Elliott

Nicklon Elliott is Director of Prisons in Guyana. He has served the Guyana Prison Service for over 20 years, bringing expertise in security, leadership, and strategic planning. He holds a Master of Science in Strategic Development Studies and a Commonwealth Master of Public Administration from the University of Guyana, along with a degree in Social Work. Beyond his role in corrections, Mr Elliott is Chairman of the Prison Officers' Co-operative Credit Union, Director of the Guyana Co-operative Credit Union League, and Treasurer of the Caribbean Confederation of Credit Unions, reflecting his commitment to both institutional development and regional financial leadership.