

Shauna Trowers

Miss Shauna Trowers is a policy development specialist with over 23 years' experience. She is noted for her extensive experience in cross cutting policy areas, ranging from international taxation and fiscal management to development policy.

Adept at managing cross functional teams, her ethos and unwavering commitment to national policy development led her to her current role as the Chief Technical Director at the Ministry of National Security with responsibility for the Crime Prevention Rehabilitation Inspectorate Policy Division (CPRIP) where she has held this post for the past six (6) years.

She holds a BSc (Honours) in International Relations and Public Administration and a MSc (Hons) Government, with emphasis on International Relations.

As a part of her portfolio responsibility, she provides leadership and strategic direction in the areas Crime Prevention & Community Safety, Offender Management & Rehabilitation Policy and Security & Standards.

A Proscii Certified Change Management Specialist and Justice of the Peace, who is characterized by her love of knowledge, lifelong learning and commitment to national development.