

Tim Howe

Tim Howe is the Senior Regional Migrant Protection Specialist with IOM's Regional Office for Latin America and the Caribbean, based in Panama. Tim has been working with IOM and other UN agencies for more than 15 years, primarily in areas related to migrant protection, return and reintegration, mixed migration and counter-trafficking, including in emergency contexts. Previous postings have included positions in Kenya, Tanzania, Thailand and Costa Rica, as well in Geneva, Switzerland. Prior to his current position Tim was the Regional Coordinator for the Interagency Response for refugees and migrants from Venezuela (R4V), based in Panama. Tim is a German national and holds an LLM in International Law/ Human Rights Law from the London School of Economics.